

Welcome

Welcome to our Spring season filled with luminary artists, witty storytelling and exciting collaborations.

An unfinished story from a much-loved author and one of history's most infamous betrayals are the centrepieces for the Richard Burton Company; join us for the witty and unconventional Jane Austen play, 'The Watsons', and the hilarious courtroom drama 'The Last Days of Judas Iscariot'. Our musical theatre performers will take you on a joyfully anarchic ride in the musical 'Cry-Baby' and the David Seligman Opera School choose the doorway to hell, in the darkly comic 'Orpheus in the Underworld'.

This season's selection of superstar musicians will not disappoint; from the supreme virtuoso violinist James Ehnes to romantic piano recitals from Lise de Salle and Alim Beisembayev. Award-winning jazz singer Ian Shaw takes on the iconic music of Sondheim, The Carducci Quartet celebrate 90 years of Steve Reich, and we welcome the world-renowned Carnatic flautist, Shashank Subramanyam.

Exploring new performance styles and diverse influences, our musicians will work with one of the world's most acclaimed tuba players Sergio Carolino showing the expressive power of low brass instruments, as well as composer/turntablist Shiva Feshareki who draws on her Persian heritage in a cutting-edge 3D performance-installation. Saxophonist Julian Argüelles comes together with our jazz orchestra in a Spanish and South-African grooves infused programme.

We'll fill the Dora Stoutzker Hall with music from Wales on St David's Day and we spotlight music by female composers for International Women's Day. For families, the heart-warming 'The Zoo that comes to you' talks animal conservation and our youth instrument days give young budding musicians a chance to develop their skills. Take a look at what's in store!

Emma Watson is 19 and new in town. Cut off by her rich aunt and dumped back in the family home, Emma and her sisters must marry, fast. Luckily, there are plenty of potential suitors to dance with, from the flirtatious Tom Musgrave to castle-owning Lord Osborne, who's as awkward as he is rich. So far, so familiar. Just one problem, this story is unfinished...

Based on Jane Austen's incomplete novel, this sparkingly witty play looks under the bonnet of Jane Austen, explores the evolution of characters and their endless literary possibilities.

The Last Days of Judas Iscariot

Fri 6–Wed 11 Mar 7.15pm

Tue 10 Mar 2pm

The case: The Kingdom of Heaven and Earth versus Judas Iscariot.

In this hilarious and extraordinary courtroom drama, history's most infamous betrayal is dissected by the forces of good and evil. Figures such as Pontious Pilate, Mother Theresa and Sigmund Freud called to testify in a court that owes as much to the ghetto as the Gospels. Stephen Adly Guirgis uses the violent, chaotic energy of New York City to explore the timeless questions of free will and responsibility.

Cry-Baby

Sat 14–Thu 19 Feb 7pm

Wed 18 Feb 2pm

From the writers of Hairspray comes John Waters' cult classic rebellion, bursting onto the stage with guitar riffs, bad behaviour and deliciously twisted 1950s satire.

Meet Wade 'Cry-Baby' Walker, Baltimore's baddest good boy, and Allison, the society sweetheart who falls hard for him and his crew of leather clad outcasts. As the clean-cut squares declare war on the rock and roll misfits, this gloriously unhinged musical ignites into a high camp riot of romance, rebellion and rockabilly. With its sharp wit and tongue in cheek humour, this is not your typical squeaky clean teen musical!

Orpheus in the Underworld

Fri 20–Tue 24 Mar 7pm

Offenbach's satirical 'Orpheus in the Underworld' turns ancient myth into comic opera at its most playful.

Eurydice has had enough of Orpheus, he's not exactly heartbroken, and the gods are too busy partying to care.

A sparkling score - featuring the famous cancan - sharp humour and fast-paced dialogue. Join the David Seligman Opera School for a joyful journey to the underworld where laughter, mayhem, and Offenbach's irresistible music reign supreme!
